To whom it may concern,

Your need for a young, trainable, passionate marketing manager, is a perfect match for my skills, strengths, and potential. A company like yours with customers of the utmost importance, needs young employees with skill and grit. Having Fortune 500 businesses as your customers, and growing a business takes dedicated individuals that look out for the betterment of the team rather than themselves. This kind of selflessness and teamwork while still being a positive leader, is what makes myself fit for the job.

Throughout my highschool career, I have developed a passion and skill towards marketing and advertising. Taking many marketing classes, has given me the opportunity to have a hands on real world experiences, at the highschool classroom level. These experiences have really helped me develop the skills needed for marketing jobs in the future. An example of this would be that through the class I achieved a certification from the national retail federation, for customer service. This is just one of the many qualities that I bring to the table.

Not only has my schooling prepared me for such a job, but my work experiences, community involvement and extracurriculars as well. These lessons and experiences have prepared me to be a prime candidate for this position. If you would like to learn more about me, and my experiences, please consider visiting my online portfolio I have created.

Thank you for your time and consideration. If you would like to discuss my potential in an interview form please feel free to contact me via email at : fontanafrazier@gmail.com or by phone (262)391-7906

I look forward to hearing back from you.

Sincerely,

Fontana Frazier
